Mail Stop PETITION
Commissioner for Patents
P.O. Box 1450
Alexandria, VA 22313-1450

Dear Sir:

A final Office Action was mailed on January 11, 2006, and an Amendment After Final was refused entry on May 25, 2006. On June 7, 2006, Applicants' attorney mailed a Request for Continued Examination ("RCE"), with the required fee and a postcard receipt (Exhibit A). One of several conditional requests for time extension and general authorizations to charge Applicants' attorney's deposit account for such extensions was made of record on May 10, 2006 (Exhibit B).

The RCE was apparently not received or was lost by the Patent and Trademark Office, and the six-month date for reply has now passed. While a formal Notice of Abandonment has not been received, Applicants now petition the Commissioner to withdraw any holdings of abandonment, and accept the RCE as of June 7, 2006, nunc pro tunc, pursuant to 37 C.F.R. 1.137(a). Applicants believe that a fee is not required for this 1.181(a) Petition, but if there is a fee, the Office is authorized to charge Deposit Account No. 07-2069. A duplicate copy of this Petition is enclosed.

Abandonment was unavoidable. Applicants' attorney's office routinely files papers in the Patent and Trademark Office. According to established standard procedure, documents such as the RCE filed in this case are prepared by an administrative assistant and presented to an attorney for review and signature. If the paper is in good order, it is signed. The attorney also signs the certificate of mailing or transmission, and returns the papers to the administrative person who prepared the papers. When mail is used, the administrative assistant routinely completes the mailing process and leaves an envelope in the mailroom. Later in the day, mailroom personnel seal the envelope, place adequate postage on the envelope and deposit the envelope with the U.S. Postal Service.

In this case, the undersigned attorney certified that the RCE was sent by first-class mail on June 7, 2006. The aforementioned office practices and the attorney certification are sufficient to establish that these papers were mailed on June 7, 2006. For this reason, abandonment was unavoidable.

RECEIVED
CENTRAL FAX CENTER

AUG 23 2006

Applicants learned that the Office had not received the June 7, 2006 RCE on August 2, 2006, when Applicants' attorneys received an inquiry from Examiner Kapadia. A copy of the postcard, check and RCE was faxed to the Examiner on August 2, 2006, but the papers could not be accepted without a Petition. The undersigned attorney learned of this situation some time after he returned from travel on August 16, 2006.

If this Petition based on unavoidable abandonment is denied for any reason, Applicants petition for revival of this Application pursuant 37 C.F.R. 1.137(b). Applicants' attorney states that the entire delay in filing the RCE from the due date until the filing of this Petition pursuant to this paragraph was unintentional. Again, the Commissioner is hereby authorized to charge any additional fees which may be required to this application under 37 C.F.R. 1.16-1.17, or credit any overpayment, to Deposit Account No. 07-2069. A duplicate copy of this Paper is enclosed.

Dear Sir:

A final Office Action was mailed on January 11, 2006, and an Amendment After Final was refused entry on May 25, 2006. On June 7, 2006, Applicants' attorney mailed a Request for Continued Examination ("RCE"), with the required fee and a postcard receipt (Exhibit A). One of several conditional requests for time extension and general authorizations to charge Applicants' attorney's deposit account for such extensions was made of record on May 10, 2006 (Exhibit B).

The RCE was apparently not received or was lost by the Patent and Trademark Office, and the six-month date for reply has now passed. Applicants believe that a fee is not required for this 1.181(a) Petition, but if there is a fee, the Office is authorized to charge Deposit Account No. 07-2069. A duplicate copy of this Petition is enclosed.

Abandonment was unavoidable. Applicants' attorney's office routinely files papers in the Patent and Trademark Office.
